Newport Rib Company Donates over $20,000 to Charity in October

COSTA MESA, CA – Newport Rib Company’s 40 Year Anniversary Celebration, “20 days plus 20 Charities” benefiting local and national charities resulted in $20,260 in donations for selected charities. “The success of this program demonstrates to us that our community loves to give back.” says John Ursini, owner of Newport Rib Company, “We are ecstatic at the results and plan on continuing to support the community year-round.”

Family-owned and operated community-focused barbeque and catering restaurant Newport Rib Company launched “20 Days Plus 20 Charities, Celebrating 40 Years of Delicious BBQ” on October 1 to commemorate their 40th year in business. The program asked patrons to check a box allocating 20% of their guest check to one of the 20 local and national charities. The charities receiving the most customer directed donations were the Alzheimer’s Association, PCRF, Priceless Pets Animal Shelter and Robyne’s Nest.

“It was also heartwarming to see some of the local charities do so well” says Laura Ursini Marroquin, Community Relations Manager at Newport Rib Company, “They work hard year-round to provide assistance to those in need. We are glad that we can support their work through our anniversary celebration.” Some of the local charities that were popular among diners were Patrick’s Purpose, Newport Mesa Schools Foundation and the Ben Carlson Foundation.

Kim Turner, Founder of Patrick’s Purpose remarks, “It is incredible to be in a room with other charities that represent so many amazing causes. The variety and number of charities selected shows just how much the Ursini Family truly cares about our entire community. I am so honored to be a part of this event!”

Newport Rib Company, founded by Fran Ursini in 1984, has been a long-time community supporter, donating to hundreds of charity fundraisers and events each year. John Ursini concludes, “We feel exceptionally fortunate to have the opportunity to support the local community and we plan on continuing this type of tradition for years to come!”
